

LIFELINE PARTNERSHIP

*(Serving people with developmental disabilities since 1954)

Invites you to a workshop:

“Nurturing the Faith Of People With Developmental Disabilities”

- What can parents do?
- What can churches do?
- What can church members do?

Saturday August 9, 2008

9:30am: Registration, Coffee, Rolls

10am – 11:30am: Workshop

Presenter: Marybeth Fox-Grimm

Executive Director for 10+ years of Lifeline Partnership (a faith-based nonprofit providing spiritual and social supports to people with developmental disabilities in the Metropolitan DC area)

COST: No charge – but please call ahead to sign up so that adequate materials and refreshments may be prepared for all guests.

SIGN-UP: Call Marybeth Fox-Grimm at (202) 628-4819.

DEADLINE: Please sign up by Wednesday, August 6, 2008.

WHERE: First Trinity Lutheran Church, 501 Fourth St NW, Washington DC, corner of Fourth Street NW and “E” Street NW.

TRANSP: Only ½ block from elevator exit at Judiciary Square on Metro’s Red Line.

ACCESSIBILITY: Elevator, vinyl floors, accessible bathrooms.

LIFELINE PARTNERSHIP

- A parent-founded nonprofit providing community-based spiritual and social supports to people with developmental disabilities since 1954.
- Recipient of the 2007 Christian Service Award for Volunteers by Bethesda Lutheran Homes and Services.

{Ref: Flyer08, for AugWkshop.doc}

